

Brent Reider:

Brent was a joy to be around. Smart, funny and technically gifted in sound and radio. Brent handled life with grace and aplomb and kept us laughing late into the night. He broadcast over a pirate radio station from his basement which he coined the "BVD Underground and Wear Show" and, was involved in all the many UA theatre productions. I admired Brent and was saddened to hear of his early passing.

Class regards, John Williams