

SALLY AND DOUG REIGN AT MARDI GRAS

by Marty Hair

Creatures from the deep, beatniks, and people straight from volumes of history books haunted the Jones gym Friday night, March 4, for the annual French Club Mardi Gras. This dance, supervised by Mrs. Hayes and Mrs. Mann, is the biggest project of the year for the language club, and in everyone's opinion it was a smashing success.

Costumes were judged for prizes at 8:30 when all contestants formed a large circle. Unusual outfits were numerous, and the chaperones reported that there were many more good costumes than prizes. First prize, a record gift certificate, was awarded to Linda Harrington, Sarah Robinson, Lynn Johnston, Amy Kinney, and Marty Hair, who came as a huge pink octopus made of chicken wire stuffed with paper napkins.

The height of excitement came at 9 P.M. when the King and Queen for the 1966 Mardi Gras were announced by French Club president Doug Crim and secretary Marty Hair. The royalty were Doug Crim, King, and Sally Whipple, Queen. Princes and princesses were Beth Postle, Tracey Potts, John Livingston, and Allen Carnes.

Entertainment was provided by the folk-singing group of ninth graders Judy Winters, Jeff Putnam, and Duke Wick.

A bird's-eye view of Mardi Gras.

A pink monster from the deep rises to take first prize.