

to Bobby Long; Sharon Bonnie: My Latin grades to all incoming Latin students; Pam Fraley: A wrong Wednesday night to Barb Meistedt; Tom Chipman: Gym shorts to Mona Frecker; Bill Carr: My good looks and personality to Larry Howard; Dave Spencer: My school spirit and my good spellin' to any one who wants it; Linda Appel: A pair of slightly used roller skates to Tia C.; Debbi McNeal: All my left over oatmeal to Nancy; Lynda McClenaghan: "IT" to Lisa Kirk; Allyn Doyle: Six-thousand-pound chicken to Kathy McNeal; Linda Harrington: all my Shakespearean quotes to Joanie Grant and Gail Hannaway; Hugh Miller: My grades and my locker to Boyd Mitchell; Charles Garvin: My pretty pink belt to Bruce Wall; Mike Gogar: My gym shorts and all my bad grades to Marty Miller; Carole Cavillarro: All the Peanuts books in my locker to Marci Openshaw; Jack Cochran: All my A's and B's to my brother Jim; Jane Cunningham: My brother to Joanie Johnson; Sally Whipple: The year-old Christmas present you finally received to Susie Graham; Jim Patterson: The gym and tracks to Dan Owens; Susan Ransom: All my sloppy, abbreviated, and picturesque science notes to Janet Ransom and Marty Miller; Jeff Miller: Another unfinished constitution to Chris Johnson; Tom Horn: My gym shorts to Larry Howard; Cynthia Feltner: My jumbo loop earrings to be worn on all choir engagements to any girl in the freshman choir who will promise to give the director more trouble than I did; Randy Yontz: All my excellent study habits to everyone (there's enough to go around); Linda Kelsey: The 1958-59 steel strike note cards (debate) to Jim Curry; Bob Uhlig: All of my school material and junk to Jeff Uhlig; Clarke Johnson: The cafeteria to Lloyd Osborne; Raymond Heap: My locker and my teachers to Sally Stoffel; Bob Snider: My ghost to the entire seventh grade; Debbi Leggett: A bottle of bubbles to Barb Barry; Jim Long: A crash helmet and stilts for the faculty game to Bobby Long; Jim Seibert: My outstanding physique and shot put ability to my little baby brother Davey; Ann Davidson: All the fun of being in ninth grade and getting out of it to Penny Bonte; Kay Ellenwood: Room 312 to Penny Bonte; Doug Crim: Something you'll need a lot of in next year's freshman sophomore football scrimmage—LUCK, to Bruce Tetrick; Judy Davis: All the girls who want him to stay at Jones to Bobby Long; Don Braithwaite: Plenty of air and my great tuba playing ability to tuba players Scott Hill and Dave Morgan; John Livingston: My way with the women to Bobby Long; Lee Meckstorth: One pair of high heeled "John Hardy" combat boots to Steve Wilson; Michael Chapin: The teachers, the school and my locker to Dean Gielett; Ann Wilson Gallagher: A slightly torn, slightly worn clown to future members of "Le Cercle Francais"; Peggy Bettye: My library job and the punch and passes to Scott Sinclair; Doug Ezell: Ten trampoline lessons to Rick Scarberry and 7,000,000 laps to Steve Aumiller; Fritz Reitter: My Grand Prix driving ability to Richard Perryman; Cyndy McLane: All the notes I never wrote her to Susie Canal; Debbie Heil; Patty Buble to Richard Perryman; Angie Finelli: My Spanish notebook to Marti Foster; Janice Coughlin: All my messed up history notes to Tia Correale; Diane Adair: The end locker to my brother; Jill Harris: My place in glee club to Diane Dickson; Ellen Isaly: All my yellow IGA slips to Bob Long; Sunny Odgers: my void history book to Marcia Perry; Sue Hindall: My neat locker and any fortune found within to Chris Rungan; Linda Steffens: My outstanding popularity with all the teachers and my fabulous grades to my sister, Jane Steffens; Bob Miller: My football, basketball and baseball uniforms to whomever has the courage to accept them; Jane Anderson: My fish to Peggy Amos; Twinkie von

	Doug Crim Sally Whipple
SPORTSMANSHIP	John Livingston Dianne Detwiler
INDIVIDUALISM	Charles Garvin Taryl Mason
FRIENDLIEST	Scott Roberts Gretchen Baas
MOST ATTRACTIVE	Fritz Reitter Ginny Poe
SCHOOL SPIRIT	John Livingston Debbie Phillips
LEADERSHIP	Bruce Johnson Debbie McNeal
TALENT	Scott Johnson Judy Winters
MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED	Jim Long Beth Postle
MOST DEPENDABLE	Bob Miller
MOST LIKELY TO BE
PRESIDENT	Doug Roberts Susan Ransom
TEACHER	Jim Merrill Colleen McMahan
ACTOR	Duke Wick Twink Von Rohr
DOCTOR	Chris Copeland Debbie Warden
OLYMPIC MEDAL WINNER	Geoff Schmidt Sue Rinehart
COMEDIAN - COMEDIENNE	Doug Ezell Bev DeAngelo

to the next grade; Count Michael Foster: Three of my best HO scale army men to Roger Brandes; Becky Rankin: One beat up 2nd condition algebra book to Nancy Graser; Craig Maloon: A "D" in history and a pad of paper given to me by Mr. Wood to Mark Shutt; John Wheatley: A season of winning debates to Jim Curry; Linda Whiteman: My sweaty gym locker to Kathy Nelson; Diane Frick: Three green hose to Diana Laver—Chester Road to Terry McNa-mera; Jim Sutermaster: Broken right leg to Bruce Teterick, Karl Craven: a holey T-shirt, and two right foot tennis shoes to Tom Caton; Doug Roberts: all my "excellent" relations with Miss Hoile, soon (Mrs-) to Chris Johnson; Vickie Murphy: my sister, Leslie and cousin, Bobby Long, to anyone who will take them; Jim Fergus: The right to keep statistics for the teams at Jones to any student willing; Marty Hair: my job as an accompanist for Mr. V to Caroline Johnston; Holly Graf; my "overused" gymsuit and other remains of my years at Jones to my sister, Laurie, who will be in seventh grade next year; Terry Strang: a smelly pair of baseball socks and a broken bat to next year's baseball team; John Harris: my grades and all my books to the eighth grade class; Anne Guering: good grades to Sally Magnuson; Joey Larva: unstraight-able, untangable, curly curls to Jeff Stark; Tim Kohr: my scummy track shoes, and ragged T-shirt to whoever wants them; Jennifer Agoston: sugar n'spice, and everything nice to Wendell Cornetet; Paul Gonser: my accurate sense of timing and one BBF hamburger to Kent Burgert; Bonnie Hunter: all my "expertly taken" English notes to Penny Bonte; Bill Riesenberger: all the cinders I kicked in his face to Steve Hinshaw; Diane Detwiler: all my seventh period study halls and 1 dozen slightly used ants from my locker to Pam Conley; Doug Donaldson: my retainers, my two older sisters, the old lawnmower, and the old trash burner to Doug Locke; Dennis Anderhold: My Jones Jr. High pencils and old notebook to Jay Anderholm; Sarah Robinson: my unexcelled Latin abilities and algebraic expressions to Ann Arnold; Patty Riley: all of my 150 hair clips to the Home Ec. Room; Barb Baker: my umbrellas and rainy days to Judy Reed; Evan Jones: my pool playing techniques to Jimmie Walker; Jo Carnevale: my blue slips to the guidance office; Pat Dynes: the ring I never had to Judy Bradford; Sue Gambs: all the fun I've had in ninth grade to Marty Miller; Pat Caldwell: my wonderful body building secrets to Steve McClave; Bev Beley: one slightly mashed and stepped on burned chocolate cake, bread, pie and biscuits to Bob Teterick; Duke Wick: my tux for the 1966 Show of Shows to Jeff Krouse; Karen Shafer: the last year, sixth row Gen. Science class and my old chemical sheet that I had so much fun studying? to Sheila Tessier; Debbie Phillips: my outstanding French ability to Betsy Atkinson and Margie Gardner; Barbie Wilson: my lost voice to Marilyn Ramson; Laurel Kern: my leg to Janet Metzger; Eddie Rhine: the level ground around third base to Nell Lawrence; Connie Fisher: all the calf tongues, pigs feet, veals heart, rattle-snake meat, sauerkraut balls, and other variety meats to all girls taking ninth grade home economics next year; Jim Merell: my football and basketball shoes to any eighth grader who can wear them; Robin Morris: all the joys of first year Spanish to my little sister Molly Hood; Dick Wood: my brilliant mind in algebra to my brother David; Doug Sheffield: two dozen fuzzless tennis balls to be used in practicing his push shot to Don Bowen; Renee Allen: my toga and my fourth condition Latin book to Lois McAdoo; Linda Appel: a bag of pistacchio nuts to Tia Correale.