

55 UAHS students migrate to Europe, Asia for study

It's another first for UAHS! It is the first time a language tour from Upper Arlington High School has gone to Russia. This is just one of the three tours that are taking 55 Arlington students to abroad this summer.

Charles Will, English teacher, will chaperone Bernie Lachner, Mike Wilke, Debbie Heil, Linda Depping and Becky Long to Russia to study the Russian language and history. Mr. Will said that this trip will increase the students' skill with the Russian language. During their trip they will visit the eight European cities of Vienna, Budapest, Karacow, Warsaw, Leningrad, Moscow, Prague, and East and West Berlin.

"I feel the students going on these trips will gain experience in meeting people from other cultures," said Mrs. Margie Hale. She and her husband will be making their second trip to Europe this summer in connection with the language tours. The students who will participate in the French language tour are: Donna Craven, Diane Ray, Cynthia Wolfe, Laura Silbaugh, Betsey McConnaughey, Lynn Sala, Leslie Radbill, Jim Girves, and Ron Mink.

Mrs. Hale said that she thought that all of these students would profit greatly from this trip because they have all had four years of French. Rome, Geneva, Brussels, and Paris are the cities that will be visited by her group.

Thomas Sacco, Miss Karen Haupt and Miss Chris Schmitt, a sixth grade teacher at Darbydale School, are planning to take 40 UAHS students to Europe to study comparative governments. Their cities of interest are Rome, Leysin, Paris, Brussels, and London. The 40 students going on this expedition are: Pete Atwell, John Beall, Bill Caldwell, Wayne Hay, Dave Highsmith, Jim Lathrop, Clif Latiolais, Mark Lombard, Rick Jones, Ted McNulty, Jim Merrell, Mike Miely, Tom Popa, Jud Wambold, Barbara Bernard.

Lennie Armstrong, Betsy Atkinson, Sue Carpenter, Terry Freutel, Becky Harris, Christie Herchline, Carol Linberg, Barb Mansfield, Barb Meistedt, Marianne Moyer, Beth Postle, Tracey Potts, Patti Robe, Sue Slager, Debbie Kilgore.

Carol Buck, Cindy Brunton, Becky Gilbert, Ann Lohrman, Leslie Murphy, Linda Sharp, Nancy Clark, Tia Correale, Judy Gingrich.

The students will attend morning language classes while their afternoons will be filled with sight-seeing tours and shopping. The three trips are being planned in connection with the Foreign Language League.
