

2014 REUNION

REUNION MEMORIES AND HIGHLIGHTS

John Wheatley was such a pleasure to talk with and he hasn't changed a bit. We were both talking a mile a minute and I didn't get a chance to meet the lady standing next to him.

I told him about the time Mrs. Garrett went on maternity leave and we got stuck with Miss Simmonds. When Mrs. Garrett returned, John had written this hilarious proclamation of what went on in her absence. He got so tickled tears were streaming down his face. Mrs. Garrett was a gem and I truly treasured her. I was sad when I learned she had passed away.
